There's a time in each year that we always hold dear,

There's a time in each year that we always hold dear,

There's a time in each year that we always hold dear,

There's a time in each year that we always hold dear,
In The Good Old Summer Time

summer time. When your day’s work is over then you are in clover and life is one beautiful beautiful rhyme. No trouble annoying, each one is enjoying the good old summer time.

Chorus

In the good old summer time, in the summer time,

good old summer time,

strolling through the

shady lanes

with your baby mine,

You

hold her hand and she holds yours and that’s a
In The Good Old Summer Time

Performance Notes

1902 was a banner year for songwriters, but easily the best song of that year was one written by a Chicago-born vaudevillian, Ren Sheilds, and George "Honey Boy" Evans, a Welshman, who was one of the era's outstanding performers. Because of it's seasonal title, they had difficulty finding a publisher until Blanche Ring, a singing star, introduced it to New York audiences. It was an immediate sensation and has continued as one of America's best-loved close harmony songs. It's uncomplicated harmonic pattern makes it fun and easy to harmonize, as proved by every impromptu gathering of singers . . . any season of the year.